Cleveland Rolling Mill Men Compet a Total Cessation of Work.

CLEVELAND, O., July 4.—Early yesterday morning 1,000 strikers assembled near the iron mills in the Eighteenth Ward, Many of them were Poles and Germans, and carried pistols and knives. Men going to work were stopped, and Ed Lillie, a foreman in the Merchant mill, was roughly handled, but he escaped. At eight o'clock the crowd augmented a hundred fold, marched to the plate mills, where work was going on as usual. No reduction was intended here, and the employes were willing to proceed and let the strikers do as they pleased.

THE NEW SHORT LINE.

The Directors and Friends in Consultation Sr. Louis, July 1.—The directors an friends of the proposed railroad to be built between this city and Kansas City, called the St. Louis & Kansas City Short line have been in consultation all morning at the Planter's House. The road will probably connect with the line of the narrow guage in St. Louis County, and, crossing the Missouri River near Hawell's Ferry, will runtitrough the country lying between the Wabash and the river. The road is to be 240 miles in length. The officers are: President R. P. Williams of Fayette; Vice-President. R. P. Williams of Fayette; Vice-President General Odon Guitar of Columbia; Secre-tary, J. A. Contell of Saline County Treasurer, J. H. Wangh of Boone County. Those present at the mestion are R. P. Wil-liams and J. D. Folson of Howard County T. B. Harris of Callaway, E. M. Hughes, of Montgomery, Michell Castello of St. Charles, J. H. Cordell and A. F. Palmer of Saline, W. B. Steele and E. M. Edward, of Lafayette, J. H. Wangh, Odon Guitar and W. B. Hale of Boone. The line of the road and the matter of engaging engineers were under discussion to-day. It is expected that the engineers will be in the field within twenty days.

THE CHICAGO ELECTION FRAUDS.

Mackin Gets a Sentence of Five Years in the Penitentiary. CHICAGO, July 2,-The jury in the afternoon, having been out exactly an hour, with a verdict of guilty. The punishment was fixed at five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. As the last words of the ver-dict were pronounced Mackin slightly paled and clasped his hands together as If in a spasm of pain, but this lasted but a moment and he chatted smilingly with his brother. The jury was meaning with the prother. and he chatted smilingly with his brother. The jury was unanimous from the start as to Mackin's guilt, and there was very little discussion over the term of imprisonment. The delay in reaching the verdict, an hour exactly, came from the fact that the jury sent for and read over a part of the evidence. The prisoner was at once taken to jail, where he remarked to a reporter, who had inquired how he felt about the verdict: "Well, you know, me stenstone, a small station on the Chessabout the verdict: "Well, you know, me boy, there are great changes come in many men's lives, but we ain't through vet. ARRIVED AT AUCKLAND

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 1.—The Republican of this city has received a special cablegram from Auckland stating that Detectives Tracey and Badger arrived safely in that city on the morning of the 29th ult. Mr. Gamble, the American Consul, met the officers and gave them all the information relating to the arrest and de-tention of Maxwell. The latter was found in custody and answered fully the descriptions of him given at the time of the murder. He has been treated well by the Auckland jailer and appeared to be-by the Anckana janer and appeared to be enjoying good health.

He was greatly surprised when the announcement of the arrival of the St.

Louis officers was made. They immediately had a long talk with him, which resulted in Maxwell's signifying his willlinguess to return on the next steamer. The papers were presented in due form and the requisition promptly acknowl-

The officers made an examination of ediced.

The officers made an examination of Maxwell's effects and found the field-glasses bought at Aloe's, the hat bought at Hart & Duff's, a lot of clothing belonging to Prelier and a number of articles with the alias, "Hugh M. Brooks," stamped on them.

Maxwell still insists that he did not kill his friend Prelier, and that his name is T. C. D'Augier and not Maxwell. He is disposed to walve all rights under the New Zealand law for the purpose of coming back here and, as he says, establishing his innocence. He had very little money when he landed, but had letters of introduction to parties in Auckland and Sidney under the name of D'Augier which are believed to have been forged from Prelier's letters of introduction to people in the same cities. The officers people in the same cities. The officers and their prisoner will return on the steamer Zealandis, which will leave steamer Zealandis, which will leave Auckland July 25th, and arrive in 'Frisco-about the middle of August.

Terrible Explosion of Gas In a Pennsylvania Coal Mine Causes Wide-Spread Destruction and General Cousternation—Another Explosion Feared.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 1 .- About 1:30 o'clock yester-lay morning an explosion of gas which shook the entire city and caused something like a general panic occurred at one of the Delaware, Lackswanna & Western Company's coal shafts-in the northwestern portion of Scranton. Many persons were startled from their sleep by the sharp shocks, and some thought it might possibly be an earthquake. Those who were abroad witnessed a dazzling flash of light, and thought it possibly was some of the powfer mills on the mountain that had blown up. The idea of such a terrific blaze and convulsion being caused by a mine ex-plosion seemed incredible. The excite-ment in the vicinity of the shaft was most
